Medicinal Thai Gold Spoon.

There are some men who seem to be favorites of fortune. They are industrious, cheerful workers, full of overflowing energy of splendid health, and success seems fairly to drop into their hands. It is of such as these that the less hardy and less successful man says enviously, "That fellow was born with a gold spoon in his mouth." And yet on analysis it will be found that this success is largely due to splendid health, the endowment of a healthy mother.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives the mother health to give her child. It cures nervousness, nausea and sleeplessness. It makes the body comfortable and the mind content. It gives physical vigor and muscular elasticity so that the baby's advent is practically painless.

"I will endeavor to tell you of the many benefits I have derived from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. J. Roberts, the full of 1899 I was expecting to become a mother and suffered terribly with pains in the back of head, in fact I ached all over. Suffered with awful bearing-down pains. I was threatened for weeks with miscarriage. A lady friend told me to use Dr. Pierce's medicine. She had taken them and felt like a new woman. I began using the Favorite Prescription and took four bottles before my baby came and two afterwards. I suffered almost death with my other two children, but hardly realized that I was twelve and one-quarter months. She is now eleven months old and has never known any sickness; at present she weighs thirty-seven pounds. I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, and sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

MR. BRYAN IN OHIO.

Mr. William Jennings Bryan was the attraction at Urbana, Ohio, yesterday at the Chautauqua Assembly. The democratic convention of Champaign county, to nominate a ticket and to elect delegates to the democratic State convention at Columbus two weeks hence, was also held yesterday, and Mr. Bryan's presence was made the occasion for a conference of leaders.

It had been announced at the occasion for making the Johnson program for the State convention, but the invitations of the committee were not limited to any faction. Among those accepting invitations were Mayor Johnson, of Cleveland; John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, and ex-Congressman Lentz, of Columbus.

The delegates chosen to the State convention are for Zimmerman for Governor. There were demonstrations when the resolutions were read and adopted, endorsing both the Chicago and Kansas City platforms and expressing continued confidence in Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan began speaking at 10:30 o'clock, and addressed the convention at length. Those in attendance at Chautauqua Assembly crowded about the tabernacle, making an immense audience. Colonel Bryan congratulated the convention on its history and denied that he was a disturber, as charged by some who disturbed the party for years.

Mr. Bryan received his greatest ovation when he said: "The democrats in 1892 played a confidence game on the people and put a bunco stealer at the head of the party. I want to say to you, my friends, that the disreputable man who stands on the street cringing and leads the unwary traveler into a game where he loses his money is respectable compared with the man who accepts the suffrages of five millions of people and then leads them into Wall street to be betrayed. Don't be deceived when they tell you it was the silver question that drove people out of the party. Those who left the democratic party are divided into two classes—those who left because they understood the issue in the campaign and those who left because they were deceived in the issue of the campaign. Those who understood the issue and left, because they understood it, can never return to the party until they repent and show that their hearts and sympathies are changed. The fight will continue in this country until one side or the other is triumphant." He said he had more respect for a republican than for anyone calling himself a democrat "who would put his principles on the auction block or in a junkshop."

Mayor Johnson entered as Bryan was speaking, and the speaker stopped to shake hands with him while the audience was cheering. Mr. Bryan continued the discussion of issues for an hour, when he was followed by John L. Zimmerman, ex-Congressman John G. Lentz and Mayor Tom L. Johnson.

Mr. Johnson discussed taxation and other State issues and pending State constitutional amendments. He said the chairman of the republican State committee and other republicans had said that the main issue was the re-election of Mark Hanna as Senator. While declaring that much more than "Hanna's place" was at stake, Mayor Johnson insisted that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for Senator, but that the State convention was pledged to endorse someone. Mayor Johnson said the democrats were fighting for the control of the next Legislature more for reform in home rule, taxation and other State issues than for anything else. He declared that this was a time for the issues of today and not of the days of Thurman and other democratic patriarchs. He discussed the defeat of the democrats in Ohio and said it was due often to dead issues.

A FRIGHTFUL EXPERIENCE.

John Williams, a boiler cleaner employed in the roundhouse of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad at Bridgeport, Conn., passed through a frightful experience Tuesday night, and it is due only to his rare presence of mind that he saved his life and escaped a horrible death. Shortly before midnight Williams set out to groom engine No. 572. He dumped the firebox, let it cool and then entered the firebox to lay the fuel. This consists of large sections of oily railroad ties, which lie upon oily waste and over which is poured several gallons of kerosene oil and as many of kerosene, until the pyre is saturated with the oil, ready to ignite at a moment's notice. All that is then necessary is to insert a torch into the firebox, when, with a flash, the entire pyre bursts into flame and in a short time steam is up inside the boiler. In entering the furnace mouth the engineer carries an oily rag around his neck, which lights the interior of the firebox and enables him to lay the blocks in readiness for the blaze. Tuesday night Williams had just poured the gallons of kerosene upon the wood and turned to leave the

MRS. HELENA BLAV.

Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

TEN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blav, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women who Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'women's best friend' and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
